

Question 25 (translated from French):

In the exploratory study request form, which information has to appear on the location map of the project? For instance, is the location of wind turbines required?

Answer 25:

As mentioned in Section 3.1 of Appendix 6 of the Call for tenders document, only the project's localization, including the geographical coordinates of the wind farm's switchyard, is required.