

Question 27: (translated from French)

If our company is registered as a bidder, can our community or Aboriginal partner use our user code received during registration to ask questions via Hydro-Québec Distribution's website?

Answer 27:

Yes. However, in the event that the community or Aboriginal partner is not registered to the present call for tenders, he will have no alternative but to submit bids in partnership with companies duly registered.