

BULLETIN

Spring flow conditions to be reproduced in the Rivière Rupert as of May 8, 2010

Nemiscau workcamp, May 6, 2010

In accordance with the commitments undertaken, starting May 8, the instream flow in the Rupert River will be gradually increased over a period of five days. The higher flow will simulate spring fish spawning conditions for sturgeon, walleye and suckers.

-30 -

For more information:

www.hydroquebec.ca/rupert

1 888 676-4636

Sources:

Yves Barrette

Public Relations and Consultation Advisor
Société d'énergie de la Baie James
Telephone: 515 286-2020, extension 2293
barrette.yves@hydro.qc.ca

Marie-Ève Morin

Information Officer - SEBJ
Nemiscau Workcamp
Telephone: 819 672-2200, extension 3857
Cellular: 819 865-7097
morin.marie-eve@hydro.qc.ca