PUBLIC MEETINGS

120-kV GRAND-BRÛLÉ–SAINT-SAUVEUR SUPPLY LINE PROJECT

Hydro-Québec plans to build a 120-kV line approximately 40-km long in the regional county municipalities of Pays-d'en-Haut and Laurentides. This new line will supply the existing Saint-Sauveur and Doc-Grignon substations, as well as a substation planned for Chertsey, in the Lanaudière region. This line project is necessary to sustain residential, commercial, economic and tourism development in the region, as well as meet electricity needs for the next 20 years.

Hydro-Québec now wishes to share with the public the improvements made to the initial project, as well as the optimized line route and its new technical characteristics.
